- f) other investment services and activities (dealer operations, underwriter and agent services, custody, and management of financial instruments for the Client's account, lending of financial instruments, etc.);
- g) other matters significant to the Bank's operations in accordance with the Law.

Article 2

(1) These Rules with annexes and the Tariff Regulation are delivered to the Client at his request, and always before the conclusion of the contract for the provision of investment services from Article 3 of these Rules.

(2) The Bank provides access to the applicable version of these Rules and annexes, as well as the Tariff Regulation, in the Bank's premises, in the business premises of a third party that receives client orders in the name and for the account of the Bank, by displaying them in a prominent and accessible place or otherwise, as well as on the website <http://www.bancaintesa.rs/>.

(3) The Client's statement that the said documents were available to him before the conclusion of the contract and that he is familiar with their content forms an integral part of the contract between the Client and the Bank.

3. TYPES AND METHODS OF PERFORMING INVESTMENT SERVICES AND ACTIVITIES

3.1. Types of investment services

Article 3

(1) Investment services and activities in the sense of these Rules mean the following investment services and activities of the Bank from Article 2 of the Law:

- a) receipt and transfer of orders related to one or more financial instruments and execution of orders for the Client's account (hereinafter: Brokerage Services);
- b) trading for own account (hereinafter: Dealer Operations);
- c) underwriting in relation to financial instruments, i.e., implementation of the procedure of offering financial instruments with redemption obligation (hereinafter: Underwriter Services);
- d) implementation of the procedure of offering financial instruments without redemption obligation (hereinafter: Agent Services).

(2) Ancillary services performed by the Bank in accordance with the provisions of the Law are:

- a) custody and management of financial instruments for the Client's account (custody services) and related services, such as administration of funds and collateral, with the exception of maintaining and keeping securities accounts under the competence of the CSD;
- b) granting loans to investors for the purpose of concluding a transaction with one or more financial instruments when the Bank grants the loan and is involved in the transaction;
- c) foreign currency conversion services in relation to the provision of investment services;
- d) research and financial analysis in the investment field or other forms of general recommendations regarding transactions in financial instruments;
- e) underwriting-related services;
- f) investment services and activities, as well as ancillary services, related to the basis of derivative financial instruments from Article 2, Paragraph 1, Item 19), Sub-items (5), (6), (7) and (10) of the Law, related to the provision of investment or ancillary services.

(3) During its existence, the Bank may change the type of investment services it provides, pursuant to the Law.

(4) The Bank may entrust another legal entity with the receipt of orders for the purchase or sale of financial instruments in the name and for the account of the Bank (hereinafter: third party) under the conditions set out in Article 60 of these Rules.

3.2. Conditions for performing investment services and activities

Article 4

(1) The Bank performs investment and ancillary services and investment activities for which it has received a permission from the Commission to perform activities on the organized market, upon fulfillment of the conditions in terms of staff and organizational skills and technical equipment, as well as other conditions prescribed by the Law and the Commission's acts.

Article 5

(1) Brokerage Services, Dealer Operations, Underwriter Services, and Agent Services in the Bank are performed by employees licensed to perform brokerage operations, and these persons also meet other requirements in accordance with the Law, bylaws, and the Bank's acts.

Article 6

(1) The Bank has organized its operations in such a way as to minimize possible conflicts of interests of the Clients with the interests of the Bank, its shareholders, directors, members of the Board of Directors, members of the Executive Board, and employees.

(2) The Bank takes appropriate measures to identify conflicts of interest, including conflicts of interests of the persons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and all persons closely related to them, on the one hand, and the interests of its Clients, on the other hand, as well as mutual conflicts of interests of individual Clients, which may arise in connection with the provision of investment services.

(3) If the organizational and administrative measures established by the Bank to prevent conflicts of interest and causing damage to the Clients' interests are not sufficient to reasonably prevent the risk of damage to the Clients' interests, the Bank shall clearly disclose to the Client the general nature and/or sources of conflict of interest and the steps taken to mitigate those risks before commencing operations for his account.

3.3. Secondary trade in financial instruments

Article 7

(1) Secondary trade in financial instruments is carried out for the account of the Client and the Bank (Brokerage Services and Dealer Operations) on the:

- a) Regulated market;
 - b) MTF;
 - c) OTF;
 - d) Systematic Internalizers, Market Organizers, or other liquidity providers;
 - e) entities that perform a similar function in a foreign country as any of the aforementioned entities; or
 - f) OTC market (over-the-counter or direct negotiation).

(2) The Bank trades in financial instruments in accordance with the Law, the acts of the Commission, the rules of the CSD, and the rules of the market organizer.

3.4. Client categorization and change of category

Article 8

(1) The Bank and third parties through which the Client's orders are received, before providing the service to the Client, classify the Client into the category of Professional or Retail Investors, based on the information available to them regarding the Client, and especially regarding his/her:

- a) investment goals;
- b) knowledge and experience; and
- c) financial position.

(2) If, in the course of business, it is determined that a Client no longer meets the requirements for classification into the initially determined category, the Bank shall inform the Client thereof.

3.4.1. Professional investor

Article 9

(1) A professional investor is a person who has sufficient experience, knowledge, and expertise to independently make investment decisions and properly assess the associated risks, and who meets other requirements prescribed by the Law, in particular:

- a) persons who are subject to the obligation to obtain a license or supervision in order to operate on the financial market, including: credit institutions, investment companies, other financial institutions that are subject to the obligation to obtain a license or supervision, insurance companies, collective investment institutions and their management companies, voluntary pension funds and their management companies, dealers of goods and commodity derivatives, other institutional investors, other investors considered as professional in accordance with EU regulations;

b) legal entities that meet at least two of the following conditions:

- a) total assets amount to at least EUR 20,000,000,
- b) annual operating income amounts to at least EUR 40,000,000,
- c) own capital amounts to at least EUR 2,000,000,

all calculated in RSD counter value at the official middle exchange rate of RSD against EUR determined by the National Bank of Serbia;

- c) the Republic of Serbia, autonomous provinces, and local government units, as well as other states or national and regional bodies, the National Bank of Serbia and central banks of other states, international and supranational institutions, such as the International Monetary Fund, the European Central Bank, the European Investment Bank and others, similar, international organizations;

- d) other institutional investors whose main activity is investing in financial instruments, including persons engaged in securitization of assets, or other financing transactions.
- (2) A professional Client is obliged to timely inform the Bank of all facts that could affect the change of the client's category.
- (3) The Bank is obliged to inform the Professional Investor about the possibility of changing the agreed terms in order to ensure a higher level of protection of his interests, with the fact that it is the responsibility of the Client to request a higher level of protection of his interests when he considers that he is not able to properly assess, that is, manage the risks inherent in an investment.
- (4) The Professional Investor may request in writing from the Bank a higher level of protection of his interests in relation to all or an individual service, transactions, or financial instrument.
- (5) In the case referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article, the Bank concludes a special contract or an annex to the contract with the Client, which defines the services, transactions, and/or financial instruments in relation to which the Client has the right to a higher level of protection of his interests.

3.4.2. Designated professional investor

Article 10

- (1) In dealing with Designated Professional Investors (execution of orders on behalf of the Client and/or trading for its own account), the Bank receives consent from the potential Designated Professional Investor to be treated as a Designated Professional Investor. The respective consent can be obtained in the form of a general contract or it can be given for each transaction in the form of a contract or an order.
- (2) A Designated Professional Investor may request to be treated as a Retail Investor. The request must be submitted in writing and it must be stated that treatment as a Retail Investor is requested for one or more investment services or transactions, that is, one or more types of transactions or products.
- (3) A Designated Professional Investor may request to be treated as a Professional Investor. The request must be submitted in writing and it must be stated that treatment as a Professional Investor is requested for one or more investment services or transactions, that is, one or more types of transactions or products.
- (4) In the cases referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article, the Bank concludes a special contract or an annex to the contract with the Client, which defines the services, transactions, and/or financial instruments in relation to which the Client has the right to a higher level of protection of his interests.
- (5) In doing business with Designated Professional Investors, the Bank applies an exemption from the obligation to inform and the rules for handling orders in accordance with the Law.
- (6) For the Clients from the previous paragraph, the Bank opens an account based on the Client's order, in accordance with the rules of the CSD.

3.4.3. Retail investor

Article 11

- (1) A retail investor is any client of the Bank who is not classified as a professional investor.
- (2) The Bank treats all Clients who are natural persons as Retail Investors.
- (3) A Retail Investor has a higher degree of protection than a Professional Investor and a Designated Professional Investor, which particularly refers to the following:
 - a) The Bank assesses the appropriateness of a Retail Investor's investment in a certain financial instrument based on his knowledge and experience in the field of investment and, if necessary, warns him of the possibility that he does not understand all the risks he would take with that investment and that the financial instrument or service is not appropriate for him;
 - b) when the Bank is authorized to hold financial instruments or funds of a Client, it is obliged to provide the Retail Investor with information regarding the protection of the Clients' financial instruments and funds, which refers to the right to compensation from the Investor Protection Fund in prescribed cases;
 - c) when the Bank executes a Retail Investor's order, the achievement of the most favorable outcome is determined in relation to the total costs of the transaction taking into account the price of the financial instrument and the costs associated with the execution, including execution venue fees, clearing, and balancing costs, and all other fees paid to third parties involved in order execution;
 - d) when there are several possible order execution venues for a financial instrument, for the purpose of evaluation and achieving the best effects for the Client, which would be achieved by executing the order at each of the execution venues where the order can be executed, commissions and costs of the Bank for the execution of orders at each of those execution venues are taken into account;
 - e) The Bank does not conclude contracts with Retail Investors on the transfer of ownership of financial collateral in order to secure or cover current or future, actual, contingent, or expected Client obligations.

Article 12

- (1) A Retail Investor may request in writing from the Bank a lower level of protection of his interests in relation to all or an individual service, transactions, or financial instrument, by changing his category to Professional Investors.
 - (2) The Bank accepts the Retail Investor's request from paragraph 1 of this Article only if it assesses that the Client has sufficient knowledge and experience to independently make decisions about investments and properly assess risks related to investments, which implies that the Client meets at least two of the following three conditions:
 - a) that in the last year he made transactions on the financial markets (markets where the financial instruments for which the Client seeks the status of a Professional Investor are traded) in the counter value of at least EUR 50,000 per quarter, with an average frequency of at least 10 transactions per quarter;

- b) that the size of his portfolio of financial instruments exceeds the counter value of EUR 500,000, including cash;
 - c) that he works or has worked for at least one year in the financial sector at jobs that require knowledge of investing in financial instruments.
- (3) If it approves the request from paragraph 1 of this Article, the Bank shall:
- b) in writing and unambiguously warn the Client about the reduction of the protection of his interests and the loss of the right to compensation from the Investor Protection Fund;
 - c) request from the Client a signed declaration that he is aware of the consequences of losing the level of protection;
 - d) conclude a special contract or an annex to the contract with the Client, which defines the services, transactions, and/or financial instruments in relation to which the Client is treated as a Professional Investor, provided that the Client has submitted the declaration referred to in the previous item.
- (4) If the Bank refuses to recognize the Client as a Professional Investor, the Client retains the status of a Retail Investor.

3.4.4. Information related to Client accounts

Article 13

- (1) The Bank and third parties through which the Client's orders are received, inform the Client of the following:
- a) category in which he is classified;
 - b) level of interest protection that will be provided to him;
 - c) possibilities to request classification into another category and to change the level of protection;
 - d) information about personal data processing.
- (2) The notice referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be delivered in paper form, by electronic mail or on another Permanent Data Carrier.

Article 14

- (1) Once a year, the Bank publishes information related to client orders that are executed at trading venues or through Systematic Internalizers, Market Organizers, or some other liquidity insurers or entities that perform a function in a foreign country similar to the function performed by any of the aforementioned entities in the manner prescribed by Annex 1 of these Rules.

Article 15

- (1) The Bank delivers notices, reports, and other data and documentation to the Client in written form to the address of the Client's headquarters, temporary or permanent residence, by e-mail, SMS, or fax message or in another appropriate way that complies with the regulations, corresponds to the content of the act or data delivered and which fully meets all the necessary conditions of providing complete and clear information, protection of confidentiality and secrecy of data and protection of personal data of Clients who are natural persons. All information, including marketing information, that the Bank provides to its Clients or potential Clients must be true, clear and not misleading, and marketing material must be clearly marked as such.
- (2) The delivery from paragraph 1 of this Article is made according to the latest data submitted by the Client to the Bank. In the event that the Client does not promptly inform the Bank of the change in the data from the previous paragraph, as well as of other circumstances that may affect the orderly delivery, it will be considered that the orderly delivery has been made in accordance with the data available to the Bank.
- (3) If mail sent to the Client is returned due to an incorrect address or other data provided by the Client to the Bank, the Bank may stop sending further letters and notices to the Client, until the Client informs the Bank of the change in data that is important for orderly delivery.
- (4) The Bank can make a delivery to the Client through a third party with whom it has concluded a delivery contract, provided that the third party has an agreed obligation to protect and keep the secrecy of the business and personal data of the Client.

Article 16

- (1) The Bank is obliged to, after execution of the order for the Client's account, via the Permanent Data Carrier:
 - a) without delay, deliver to the Client a notice with essential information about the order execution;
 - b) send a confirmation of the order execution to the Client, as soon as possible, and at the latest:
 - on the first working day after the execution,
 - on the first working day after receipt of the confirmation, in the case where the confirmation of execution is received from a third party.
 - (2) The Bank provides the Client with information on the status of his account upon request.
 - (3) The Client cannot waive the right to be informed about the execution of the order, but he can order the notification to be sent in one of the ways specified by the Client's Statement of Receipt of Order Execution Confirmation, which is an integral part of the Contract between the Client and the Bank.
 - (4) The Client shall be deemed to have received the notification from paragraph 1, item a) of this Article, if the Bank delivers it directly (in branches authorized to receive orders and/or Investment Services Office), via e-banking channel, e-mail, SMS, or letter.

(5) It shall be deemed that the Client, by signing the Statement of Receipt of Order Execution Confirmation, which is an integral part of the Contract between the Client and the Bank, has agreed to collect the order execution confirmation at the Bank, after receiving the notification from the Bank from paragraph 3 of this Article.

3.4.5. Data on Clients, account balances and transactions

Article 17

(1) The Bank and its employees keep data about their Clients, balance and transactions on the accounts of financial instruments and cash accounts of the clients, information about the services they provide to the Clients, as well as other Client data that they learn in the course of their work, as a trade secret.

(2) The data referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may not be disclosed to third parties, nor may third parties be allowed to use them, except on the basis of the Client's written approval, during the supervision by control authorities, based on a court order, an authority dealing with the prevention of money laundering or terrorist financing, or other competent state authority.

3.5. Contract between the Client and the Bank

Article 18

(1) On the provision of investment services, the Client and the Bank conclude a contract in written form (hereinafter: the Contract between the Client and the Bank).

(2) The Contract between the Client and the Bank regulates the rights and obligations of the contracting parties, whereby the same can be determined by referring to other documents that are available to the client, inter alia:

- a) services that the Bank provides to the Client and the conditions for providing those services;
- b) manner of activating and deactivating certain services by the Client;
- c) elements of chapters 5 and/or 6 of these Rules, depending on the subject of the contract.

(3) Before concluding the contract, the Bank will deliver to the Client a draft contract containing the conditions for providing investment and ancillary services and investment activities, as well as the mutual rights and obligations of the contracting parties.

(4) The Client's statement that these Rules with annexes, the Tariff Regulation, and the draft contract were available to him before the conclusion of the contract and that he is familiar with their content, forms an integral part of the contract between the Client and the Bank.

Article 19

(1) The Bank acts in accordance with internal acts which refer to the activities of familiarization, identification, and monitoring of clients' operations, i.e., activities to prevent money laundering and financing of terrorism, made in accordance with the applicable regulations of the Republic of Serbia and the relevant regulations of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group.

(2) The client has the obligation to provide the Bank with all data, information, documentation, and evidence required in accordance with the regulations and acts from paragraph 1 of this Article.

Article 20

(1) Before concluding the contract on investment services, the Retail Investor fills out a questionnaire about his knowledge and experience in dealing with financial instruments on the financial market.

(2) Based on the results of the assessment from the previous paragraph, the Bank assesses the appropriateness of the investment service, i.e., the financial instrument for the Client.

(3) In the event that the Client does not provide enough information for the Bank to assess the appropriateness, the Bank warns him of the aforementioned circumstance.

(4) If it determines that the investment service/financial instrument is not appropriate, even when the Client himself requested it, the Bank informs the Client of this circumstance and the reasons, including providing a warning that it is unlikely that the Client can understand the risks associated with the requested service/instrument.

(5) In the case specified in paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Article, the Bank may execute the transaction if the Client expressly confirms his intention to continue with the execution despite the Bank's warning.

(6) The appropriateness assessment document is signed by the Client and the competent employees.

(7) By signing the questionnaire from paragraph 1, the Client confirms that he has been informed of the circumstances from paragraph 3 and 4 of this Article.

Article 21

(1) Based on the concluded contract and/or order, the Bank will open a financial instrument account with the CSD for the Client directly or through another member of the CSD.

Article 22

(1) These Rules apply to all issues that are not regulated by the contract concluded between the Bank and its Client.

(2) The provisions of the Law and bylaws and the Bank's general terms and conditions published on the website <http://www.bancaintesa.rs> under "General Terms and Conditions", apply to any issues that are not regulated by the contract referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and these Rules.

(3) If a certain issue is regulated differently by a mandatory regulation after the conclusion of the contract from paragraph 1 of this Article or the entry into force of these Rules, until the contract and/or these Rules are changed, the provisions of that regulation will be applied directly.

Article 23

(1) The Bank and its Clients are obliged to adhere to the provisions of mutual contracts, these Rules, the Law, the Commission's rules, as well as the rules and other acts of the Market Organizer.

(2) The Bank's Clients are obliged to carry out their obligations under the transactions concluded by the Bank for their account duly, in accordance with good business practices and business ethics.

Article 24

(1) Each contracting party may at any time terminate the contract governing the provision of investment services, without stating reasons, by delivering an unambiguous written notice to the other contracting party with a notice period of 30 days from the date of receipt of the notice.

(2) If the Client terminates the contract in the manner referred to in this Article, all his obligations thereunder are considered due on the date of delivery of the contract termination notice to the Bank. If the Bank terminates the contract, all the Client's obligations are considered due on the day of expiry of the notice period from the previous paragraph.

(3) In the case referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Bank will transfer all the Client's funds (cash and financial instruments) to other accounts in accordance with the instructions received from the Client.

(4) In the case referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, it will be considered that the Client has revoked all orders in accordance with Section 5.6 of Chapter 5 of these Rules.

3.6. Bank commission and other fees

Article 25

(1) The Client is obliged to pay the Bank a brokerage commission or other fee for the investment services provided by the Bank, according to the Tariff Regulation, except when otherwise determined by the contract between the Client and the Bank.

(2) When agreeing on the amount of commissions and fees from paragraph 1 of this Article, the type of work, other contractual relationships between the Client and the Bank, the value of the transaction performed at the Client's order, the costs to which the Bank is exposed in performing such work, and the complexity and scope of the work are taken into account, whereby their amounts cannot be higher than the maximum rates and/or amounts determined by the Tariff Regulation.

(3) In the case of purchase and sale of financial instruments for the account of the Client, the commission amount is specified in the order receipt confirmation, in accordance with the maximum amount of the commission established by the underlying contract on mediation or representation of the Client.

(4) The Tariff Regulation is published in the manner referred to in Article 2 of these Rules.

(5) It shall be considered that, by placing an order for the purchase or sale of financial instruments, the Client confirms that he has been informed of commissions and fees (individually and in total) from the currently applicable Tariff Regulation, third party costs (if any), and that he accepts them.

3.7. Working hours

Article 26

 - a) in the original or photocopy, with or without certification by the competent authority that the photocopy is true to the original;
 - b) with an Apostille certification or other confirmation of authenticity, depending on the country of origin of the submitted document (in the case of a foreign document).
- (3) The Client's orders and the contract for the provision of investment services are drawn up in Serbian. If the Client requests that communication with the Bank be in a foreign language, the contract for the provision of investment or ancillary services as well as accompanying documents are drawn up bilingually in Serbian and English, with the Serbian version as the prevailing one.
- (4) The Client is obliged to provide the Bank with a translation into Serbian, certified by a court translator, along with every document in a foreign language.

Article 32

- (1) The Bank may record telephone conversations of its employees with Clients.

(2) At the beginning of a telephone conversation, the voice machine is automatically activated, by which the Bank warns the Client that the conversation is being recorded. The warning is given in Serbian or English, depending on the language chosen by the Client for the provision of investment services.

(3) The Bank shall store the recording of the order given over the telephone in electronic format on a suitable medium that enables a clear and precise reproduction of the recording, as well as determining the exact time of receipt and acceptance of the order.

(4) The Bank shall keep all documentation and records of all services and transactions performed on its own behalf and for its own account or on behalf of and for the account of the Client for at least 10 years after the end of the business year in which the contractual relationship with the Client ended, and exceptionally for a period longer than the above when this is necessary to complete the supervision or litigation.

4. RULES OF BUSINESS CONDUCT WHEN PROVIDING INVESTMENT SERVICES

4.1. Safeguarding of Client interests

Article 33

- (1) In its operations, the Bank adheres to the principle of client equality.
- (2) When providing investment services, the Bank is guided exclusively by the interests of clients, paying particular attention to the best execution of orders.
- (3) The Bank shall not place its interests before the interests of its clients.

4.2. Adherence to the Code of Ethics

Article 34

- (1) When providing investment services, the Bank is guided by the provisions of the Bank's Code of Ethics, which is available on the website <http://www.bancaintesa.rs/>.

4.3. Prohibition of manipulation and spreading of false information

Article 35

- (1) The Bank refrains from all actions that can be qualified as market manipulation, which include:
 - a) Executing a transaction, issuing a trading order or other procedure that:
 - gives or is likely to give false or misleading signals or information about the supply, demand, or price of a financial instrument or related spot commodity contract on the spot market,

BANCA INTESA

Intesa Sanpaolo Group

- is implemented by a person or persons acting jointly to maintain the price of one or more financial instruments or a related commodity contract on the spot market at an unusual or artificial level, unless the person participating in the transaction, by placing a trading order or participating in another way, proves that this transaction, order or procedure has been carried out for legal reasons and is in accordance with accepted market practices in that market,
 - affect or may affect the price of one or more financial instruments or a related commodity contract on the spot market, using fictitious procedures or other forms of deception or fraud;
- b) spreading information through public media, including the Internet and all other means by which false or misleading signals may be given regarding the supply, demand or price of a financial instrument, or a related commodity contract on the spot market, or hold or may hold at an unusual or artificial level the price of one or more financial instruments or a related commodity contract on the spot market, including by spreading rumors, by a person who knew or should have known that the information was false or misleading, when the persons who communicated the information gain, for themselves or another person, an advantage or benefit from spreading that information;
- c) transmitting false or misleading information or providing false or misleading basic data in relation to the reference value when the person who transmitted the information or provided the basic data knew or should have known that they were false or misleading, or any other procedure that manipulates the reference value calculation.
- (2) Actions and procedures that are considered market manipulations include the following in particular:

Article 43

(1) The Bank acts on complaints in accordance with the legal provisions regarding the processing of complaints.

(2) Each Client has the opportunity to file a complaint with the attachment of relevant documentation to support his claims. The Bank shall process them within the legal term of 15 days. All complaints, including complaints related to the Bank's operations, are registered by the Bank's Customer Satisfaction and Complaints Management Department, and are processed by that Department and/or the Investment Services Office.

(3) The Client is provided with a complete and comprehensible answer containing an assessment of the merits of the complaint, within 15 days from the day of receipt of the complaint. The Bank's Customer Satisfaction and Complaints Management Department submits its response to the Client and records it in the appropriate complaint processing application.

(4) If in the complaint processing procedure, it is determined that a period longer than 15 days is needed to resolve the complaint, for reasons beyond the Bank's discretion, that period can be extended by a maximum of 15 days, of which the Client receives a written notification, stating the reasons due to which the response deadline is extended.

(5) If the complaint is judged to be well-founded or partially well-founded, the Client shall be informed through the response to the complaint about the measures taken with the aim of removing the causes that led to the complaint, the deadline for their removal as well as the proposal for the resolution of the disputed relationship. If the Client's complaint is judged to be unfounded, the response shall clearly state the reasons why the complaint was rejected.

(6) If the Bank does not provide a response to the Client within the deadlines specified in this Article, or if the Client is not satisfied with the response and the method of resolving the disputed event, the Client can address the entity responsible for alternative dispute resolution, i.e., initiate a civil lawsuit or address the Commission.

5. BROKERAGE SERVICES

5.1. Contract for the provision of brokerage services

Article 44

(1) In the provision of brokerage services, the Bank mediates the purchase and sale of financial instruments and performs the purchase and sale of financial instruments on behalf of the Bank and for the account of the principal, that is, on behalf of and for the account of the principal, and charges a commission for this.

Article 45

(1) Brokerage services are provided by the Bank on the basis of the contract concluded with the Client and the Client's order for the purchase or sale of financial instruments (hereinafter: the Brokerage Services Contract).

(2) Before concluding the Brokerage Services Contract, the Bank will deliver to the Client a draft contract containing the conditions for providing brokerage services, as well as the mutual rights and obligations of the contracting parties.

(3) Client's statement that these Rules with annexes, the Tariff Regulation, and the draft contract were available to him before the conclusion of the Contract and that he is familiar with their content, forms an integral part of the contract between the Client and the Bank.

(4) Depending on the type and volume of business that the Client entrusts to the Bank, the Brokerage Services Contract can be concluded as a:

- a) contract on mediation in trade in financial instruments;
- b) contract on mediation in the process of depositing financial instruments.

Article 46

(1) For the purpose of providing brokerage services, the Bank, on behalf of and for the account of the Client, opens and maintains a proprietary account of financial instruments with the CSD, based on the contract on opening and maintaining a proprietary account of financial instruments.

Article 47

- (1) When receiving an order, the Bank and the third party through which the Client's order is received, warns the Client of the following:

 - daily order
 - order until a certain date
 - c) by price:
 - order with a limit or limit order (denotes a purchase or sale order for a financial instrument at a certain, limited price or at a price that is more favorable than it; the price stated in the limit order is the maximum price at which a purchase can be executed or the minimum price at which a sale can be executed);
 - market order (denotes a purchase or sell order for a financial instrument in which the price is not specified and which may be executed at any price within the trading method rules.) With regard to its duration, a market order can only be a daily order;

d) withdrawal order;

e) by special execution conditions (special orders): Fill or Kill – FOK, Immediate or Cancel – IOC, Block Trade Order.

(2) If the Client, in the order for the purchase or sale of the financial instrument, does not specify the price at which the Bank must execute the order, such an order is considered a market order.

(3) In addition to the order from paragraph 1 of this Article, Clients may submit to the Bank other types of orders established by the acts of the Market Organizer, the acts of the Central Registry (transfer order, etc.), and acts of the Commission: (Passive order - an order entered in the book of orders, ensuring liquidity; Aggressive order - an order entered in the book of orders, withdrawing liquidity; Directed order - an order in which the Client has determined the trading venue before the order execution; Package order - an order for which the price is formulated as a single unit for the purpose of performing a replacement for a physical asset; or for two or more financial instruments in order to execute a package transaction).

(4) Limit orders that are forwarded to the Market Organizer – the Belgrade Stock Exchange can be in one of the following statuses: active (if they contain a price within the defined absolute fluctuation zone (hereinafter: AFZ)) or inactive (limit orders containing a price outside the defined AFZ). Only active orders participate in trading during a stock exchange session.

(5) Limit orders with special execution conditions that are forwarded to the Market Organizer – the Belgrade Stock Exchange can only be entered during the continuous trading phase and, by duration, can only be daily orders.

(6) Market orders that are forwarded to the Market Organizer – the Belgrade Stock Exchange can only be in the active status.

(7) Trading orders that are forwarded to the Market Organizer – the Belgrade Stock Exchange – for execution imply the transmission of personal data to the OASIS trading platform of the Athens Stock Exchange. By submitting a trading order, the Client confirms that they are familiar with and agree that, when submitting a trading order, their personal data is transferred to the Belgrade Stock Exchange, and that the latter, for the purpose of carrying out the functions of a market organizer, primarily the matching of buy and sell orders for securities, may transfer personal data to another country or international organization, specifically to the company Hellenic Exchanges - Athens Stock Exchange S.A. in the Republic of Greece, without the Client's further consent, provided that all prescribed measures and restrictions governing the protection of personal data are complied with.

5.3. Issuing orders

Article 50

(1) Clients can issue an order for the purchase or sale of financial instruments to the Bank directly or through a person authorized to issue the order.

(2) Client orders are issued:

- a) directly to the Investment Services Office;
- b) to the Bank's branches authorized to receive orders, according to the list published on the website <http://www.bancaintesa.rs/>; or
- c) in the business premises of a third party that receives client orders on behalf and for the account of the Bank.

Article 51

- (1) Clients can issue an order to the Bank in one of the following ways:
 - a) in writing on the order form;
 - b) by telephone, if this is stipulated in the contract between the Client and the Bank; or
 - c) by e-mail, if this is stipulated in the contract between the Client and the Bank.
- (2) When a Client's order is received in an authorized branch, the Bank is obliged to inform the Client:
 - a) that the authorized branch does not have permission to execute the order;
 - b) on the deadline in which the order will arrive at the Investment Services Office;
 - c) that the order is considered received upon receipt at the Investment Services Office.
- (3) The obligation to inform the Client from paragraph 2 of this Article also applies to the receipt of orders in the business premises of a third party that receives client orders on behalf and for the account of the Bank.
- (4) Receipt of orders by telephone is equal in all respects to direct receipt of orders if it enables:
 - a) determination of the exact time of order receipt (date, hour, and minute);
 - b) identifying the telephone number from which the order was issued; and
 - c) accurate identification of the Client who issued the order.
- (5) In order to submit an order electronically, the Client is obliged to provide the necessary technical support and resources (software, CD for identification, etc.), so as to ensure the correct formation of an electronic signature and reliable identification of the Client, protect the integrity of the document (order) and prevent subsequent denial of the Client's responsibility for the content of the order.
- (6) The authorization given by the Client to another person for issuing orders for the purchase and/or sale of financial instruments, concluding contracts or opening cash accounts can be given on the "Authorization for representation of owners of financial instruments" form received from the Bank or in another prescribed form. The Bank will accept the authorization only if it is notarized before a public notary or another certification authority in accordance with the regulations of the Republic of Serbia and paragraph 2 of Article 31 of these Rules and if the certification is not older than six months.

Article 52

- (1) The order form contains the following elements:
 - a) order receipt details: order number, place, date, time (hour and minute), method of order receipt, and contract number;
 - b) Client details: (full) name of the Client, address of headquarters/permanent residence/temporary residence, personal ID number in case of an individual and company registration number in case of a legal entity, number of the proprietary account of the Client's financial instruments (with a designation of the CSD member where the Client is registered) or the number of the collective custody financial instrument account (with a designation of the CSD member where the Client is registered), the number of the Client's cash account (with a designation of the CSD member where the Client is registered), name, surname, and personal identification number of the Client's representative, if any;
 - c) details on the intended transaction: type of order by type of transaction, duration (daily order or order until a certain date), expiration and price, name, designation, CFI and ISIN code of financial instruments, quantity (number) of financial instruments and price expressed in currency, order status;
 - d) market details: Market Organizer (name and company registration number), trading method;
 - e) commission amount (of the Bank, Market Organizer, CSD);
 - f) transaction – whether it is a buy or sell order;
 - g) currency designation;
 - h) special execution conditions (IOC or FOK);
 - i) broker or dealer;
 - j) indication that the principal is familiar with and is clear about all the elements of the order, especially the method of calculating the fees and expenses that he must pay for the execution of the order;
 - k) signature of the Client/Representative and authorized person - the Bank's broker.
 - (2) When an order is given by telephone, the authenticity of the order is determined on the basis of the audio recording of the telephone conversation.
 - (3) The Bank may request that an order received by telephone and electronically be confirmed in paper form.
 - (4) An order may also contain:
 - a) authorization for the Bank to, in order to achieve more favorable conditions, join the Client's sales order with the order of its other clients or clients of another investment company;
 - b) authorization for the Bank to outsource the execution of the order to another investment company;

- c) consent for the Bank to represent the other party in the same transaction of buying and selling financial instruments.

Article 53

(1) When the Client determines the price via an order, the price expressed in the purchase order represents the maximum price that the principal is willing to pay, that is, in the case of a sales order, the minimum price that the principal is willing to accept for a certain financial instrument.

(2) When the Bank transfers orders for execution to another investment company, the book of orders contains:

- a) name and surname/business name or other designation of the Client;
- b) business name or other designation of the investment company to which the order is transferred;
- c) date and exact time of order transfer or order change;
- d) order transfer conditions.

5.4. Records of received orders

Article 54

(1) The Bank keeps a book of orders in which it enters orders for the purchase and sale of financial instruments in chronological order of receipt of orders.

(2) All received orders are entered in the book of orders, including those transferred to another investment company for execution, as well as order changes, order revocation, and order execution data.

(3) The Bank keeps the book of orders in electronic form, so as to:

- a) prevent subsequent modification of entered data;
- b) ensure visibility and chronology of entered data.

(4) The content of the book of orders and the manner of keeping it are regulated in accordance with the Commission's acts.

(5) In accordance with the policies and documents of the Market Organizer – the Belgrade Stock Exchange:

- a) Trading orders with a price within the defined range of the absolute fluctuation zone (AFZ) are entered into the electronic book of orders of the Market Organizer – the Belgrade Stock Exchange. Orders with price outside the permitted AFZ range at the time of submission cannot be accepted (submitted) into the Trading System (hereinafter: TS) of the Market Organizer – the Belgrade Stock Exchange. For every scheduled stock exchange session, the TS automatically checks all previously submitted orders against the indicative price and the AFZ range for that session. Before the start of the stock exchange session, the TS automatically withdraws all orders with prices outside the limits of the permitted AFZ range for that session.
- b) A submitted market order is immediately matched with the counter-order with the highest execution priority. If, at the moment of submitting a market order, there are no trading orders of the opposite transaction type, the submitted market order is automatically withdrawn.
- c) If a market order is partially executed after the opening auction, it transitions to the continuous trading phase with a limit price equal to the opening price. Conversely, during the continuous trading phase, it is entered into the electronic book of orders with a limit price equal to the price of the last transaction.

5.5. Reasons for rejection to execute orders

Article 55

(1) The Bank shall reject the execution of an order for the purchase and/or sale of financial instruments and inform the Commission about this without delay, if it has reason to suspect that the execution of such an order would:

- a) violate the provisions of the Law;
- b) violate the provisions of the Law on Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing; or
- c) commit a criminal offense, an economic offense, or misdemeanor.

(2) The Bank may reject:

- a) the execution of a purchase order, if it determines that the Client's cash account does not have enough funds to settle the obligations arising from the execution of that order;
- b) the execution of a sales order, if it determines that the Client does not have enough instruments in the financial instruments account required to settle the obligations arising from the execution of the order.

(3) The Bank shall immediately, and no later than the next working day, inform the Client about the rejection to execute the order and the reasons for the rejection, unless stating the reasons is prohibited by regulations.

5.6. Order modification and revocation

Article 56

- (1) A Client can use a special withdrawal order to modify or revoke an already issued order in any of the manners in which he can issue an order to the Bank.
- (2) The Client does not have to modify or revoke the order in the same form in which the order to be modified or revoked was issued.
- (3) Order modification regarding the price or quantity of financial instruments is done by withdrawing the previous order and issuing a new order, except when the order is in the execution phase, or when it is not permitted by the trading method rules for the security concerned. The new order is issued in accordance with Section 5.3 of this Chapter.

Article 57

- (1) A written withdrawal order form contains the following elements:
 - a) order number, place, date, time (hour, minute), and method of receiving the revocation order;
 - b) Client details: (full) name of the Client, address of headquarters/permanent residence/temporary residence, company registration number, name, surname, and personal identification number of the Client's representative, if any;
 - c) details on the order that is being revoked: order number, place, date, time (hour, minute), and method of order receipt;
 - d) signature of the Client/Representative and authorized person - the Bank's broker;
 - e) designation of the financial instrument (issuer, type, class or series, CFI and ISIN code or other internationally recognized designation).

Article 58

- (1) In the event that the order to be changed/withdrawn has already been implemented or is in the process of implementation, the Bank shall be unable to act in accordance with the modification or revocation of the order, of which it shall inform the Client through the order form.
- (2) The Client can withdraw a deposit order by signing a withdrawal order no later than 11.30 AM on the last day of the deadline specified in the public takeover bid, except in the case of withdrawal due to order modification and in the case of depositing shares through another member of the CSD, when the modification can be made no later than 10 AM on the last day of the deadline specified in the public takeover bid.

5.7. Order receipt confirmation

Article 59

- (1) The Bank shall immediately, and at the latest on the next working day after receiving the order, deliver to the Client on a Permanent Data Carrier a confirmation of the receipt and acceptance of the order or its modification or revocation, or of the receipt and rejection of the order (with the reasons for rejection of execution) in the cases referred to in Article 55 of these Rules.
 - (2) The confirmation contains the elements prescribed by the Commission's act.

(3) When a Client submits an order directly at the Bank's business premises or third parties through which orders are received on a paper order form, the copy of the order kept by the Client is considered a confirmation of receipt of the order.

(4) When a Client submits an order by e-mail or telephone, order receipt is confirmed immediately upon receipt by sending an electronic notification.

5.8. Receipt of orders through a third party

Article 60

(1) The Bank may outsource receiving orders from the Bank's clients in the name and on behalf of the Bank to a third party, if all the following conditions are met:

- a) that this party is an investment company;
- b) that this party is not the issuer of the financial instruments for which these operations are performed;
- c) that the conditions from the Decision of the National Bank of Serbia regulating bank risk management have been met;
- d) that a communication channel has been established with the third party in such a way as to ensure the automatic updating of data and forwarding of received orders to the Bank;
- e) that the work is performed in a room that is separated from other rooms of the third party and that meets the requirements for working with Clients;
- f) that the engagement of a third party does not condition the collection of fees or other costs from the Bank's Client in an amount that is higher than the fees that the Client would have paid if the Bank had provided the services;
- g) that by engaging a third party, the Bank does not assume unnecessary business risks, jeopardize the quality of internal control, or prevent supervision by the Commission.

(2) The contract between the Bank and the third party on outsourcing the receipt of orders from the Bank's clients must regulate, inter alia:

- a) description, address, and surface area or other designation of the room where the third party will perform the tasks referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article;
 - b) obligation of the third party to use the room exclusively for the performance of work referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and the time of its use for that purpose;
 - c) right of the Bank's clients to unhindered access to the designated room;
 - d) rights and obligations of the third party affecting the fulfillment of the Bank's obligations to issue confirmation of order receipt to the Client and respect the time sequence of order receipt;

- e) obligation of the third party to keep the obtained data and documentation and ensure their confidentiality;
 - f) obligation of the third party to hand over the obtained data and documentation to the Bank in the manner established by the contract;
 - g) obligation of the third party to provide the Bank, its external auditor, the Commission, and the National Bank of Serbia with timely and unrestricted access to documentation and data related to outsourced affairs.
- (3) The Bank informs the Commission of the conclusion of the contract referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, no later than seven days after its conclusion.
- (4) In the case referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Bank may use the Client information forwarded to it by the third party.
- (5) The Bank is responsible for the execution of services or transactions based on the data it receives from the third party, in accordance with the Law.

5.9. Order execution and outsourcing of order execution

5.9.1. Order execution sequence

Article 61

- (1) The Bank executes Client orders for the purchase and/or sale of financial instruments by submitting the order to the central information base of the market organizer's trading information system specified in the order.
- (2) The Bank immediately checks whether the orders are covered in terms of Article 55 of these Rules and then executes orders for the purchase and sale of financial instruments on the organized market of financial instruments, in the sequence of receipt of orders from the book of orders, unless the organized market determines a different sequence in its rules.
- (3) The Bank immediately informs the Client about the different sequence of order execution in accordance with the rules of the Market Organizer.
- (4) The Bank submits the Client's daily order to the information system of the Market Organizer on the same day, according to the sequence from paragraph 2 of this Article, immediately after checking the coverage of the order, except when the order is placed after the end of trading, when it is submitted at the beginning of trading on the next working day.

Article 62

- (1) Client orders take precedence over:
- a) Bank's orders when it buys or sells the same financial instruments for its own account, that is, for the account of a subsidiary;

- b) orders of founders, members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board of the Bank and its employees, as well as persons related to them;
- c) orders of other investment companies when the Bank buys or sells financial instruments for the account of those companies and their brokers.

(2) The precedence from paragraph 1 of this Article implies that the Bank shall not execute other orders specified in paragraph 1 if this would jeopardize the execution of a previously placed Client order related to the same financial instruments or the execution of the Client's order would be possible only under conditions that are less favorable for the Client.

(3) Orders from paragraph 1 of this Article are executed after client orders, in the sequence established by these Rules for the execution of client orders.

5.9.2. Order execution method

Article 63

(1) The Bank executes client orders for the purchase and/or sale of financial instruments in accordance with the clients' instructions from the order and the annexes to these Rules.

(2) Execution of orders issued by the Bank for the account of its clients implies the conclusion of a transaction on the organized market or outside the organized market. An order can be implemented in whole or in part.

(3) The Bank immediately checks whether the order is covered in terms of Article 55 of these Rules and then executes the Client's order which does not specify the price for the purchase or sale of financial instruments, in the sequence from the book of orders, unless the organized market determines a different sequence in its rules.

(4) An order related to financial instruments that are traded discontinuously (at auctions) is submitted by the Bank to the first subsequent auction, unless the Client specifies otherwise in the order.

(5) The Bank informs the Client without delay about any significant difficulties related to the execution of the order.

Article 64

(1) The Bank suspends the execution of orders for the purchase or sale of financial instruments:

- a) at the Client's request, i.e., when the Client revokes the order within the time limits and in the manner provided by these Rules and the rules of the Market Organizer;
 - b) at the request of the competent regulatory body or by order of the competent court;
 - c) if one of the conditions on the basis of which the order was received is not met;
 - d) if there is a well-founded suspicion that the execution of the order would violate the provisions of the Law, the Law on Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing, or commit a criminal offense, an economic offense, or misdemeanor.

5.9.3. Order execution outsourcing

Article 65

(1) In accordance with Annex 1 of these Rules, the Bank may execute client orders through another member of the organized market if this:

- a) does not condition the collection of fees or other costs from the Client in an amount that is higher than the fees that the Client would have paid if the Bank had provided the services;
- b) cannot cause unnecessary business risks to the Bank;
- c) cannot jeopardize the quality of internal control;
- d) enables the Commission to supervise.

(2) Order execution through another investment company is carried out on the basis of a contract that regulates the term and manner in which the Client's order is transferred to the investment company, mutual rights, obligations, and responsibilities in the execution of the Client's order, pursuant to the Law and bylaws.

5.10. Informing Clients of completed orders

Article 66

(1) After the execution of the order for his account, the Bank informs the Client about the execution of the order and submits an order execution confirmation, in accordance with Article 16 of these Rules.

6. OTHER INVESTMENT SERVICES AND ACTIVITIES

6.1. Dealer operations

Article 67

(1) The Bank performs dealer operations when it buys and sells financial instruments in its own name and for its own account.

(2) The Bank performs market-maker operations when it mandatorily buys and sells a certain type of financial instruments in the name and for the account of the Bank at a price it announces in advance and generates income based on the difference in the price of financial instruments.

(3) The Bank may, in its own name and for its own account, carry out securities financing transactions (repo or reverse repo contracts or other transactions including the purchase of financial instruments and their resale, i.e., buy-sell back transactions, or the sale of financial instruments and their resale, i.e., sell-buy back transactions).

(4) The Bank performs market-maker operations on the organized market, in accordance with the rules of procedure of the Market Organizer.

(5) The Bank performs dealer and market-maker operations so as to avoid conflicts of interest in accordance with Article 6 of these Rules.

(6) Depending on the type and scope of business, contracts for buying and selling financial instruments in the name and for the account of the Bank, i.e., for financing securities, can be concluded as:

- a) contract/order/ticket/confirmation, i.e., contract note on the purchase and sale of financial instruments;
- b) framework contract on the repurchase of securities (framework repo contract).

6.2. Underwriter services

Article 68

(1) Underwriting contracts between the Client and the Bank:

- a) Oblige the Bank to, as the underwriter, undertake to redeem the entire issue or a part of the Client's unsold financial instruments before the deadline for registration and payment expires;
- b) stipulate the responsibilities of the contracting parties in connection with the issuance of financial instruments and the issue price, i.e., the interest rate;
- c) Oblige the Client, as the issuer, not to issue or sell financial instruments of the same type in a certain period after the start of the primary sale;
- d) regulate the fees, commissions, and terms of payment for underwriting services and other rights and obligations between the contracting parties.

(2) If, in addition to the Bank, other investment companies participate on the side of the underwriter with redemption obligation, the Bank concludes a special contract with those companies to regulate mutual rights and obligations and entrust one company with the role of the main organizer of distribution, which signs an underwriting contract with the issuer.

6.3. Agent services

Article 69

(1) Contracts for providing agent services between the Client and the Bank:

- a) Oblige the Bank to, as the agent, perform services related to the offer and sale of the Client's financial instruments without redemption obligation;
 - b) stipulate the responsibilities of the contracting parties in connection with the issuance of financial instruments and the issue price, i.e., the interest rate;
 - c) Oblige the Client, as the issuer, not to issue or sell financial instruments of the same type in a certain period after the start of the primary sale;
 - d) regulate the fees, commissions, and terms of payment for agent services and other rights and obligations between the contracting parties.

6.4. Custody and administration of financial instruments

6.4.1. Contract on custody and administration of financial instruments
