Supporting healthcare system in the fight against coronavirus epidemic

Banca Intesa donates RSD 10 million for procurement of medical equipment and supplies

Belgrade, April 2, 2020 – Acknowledging the gravity of the situation facing the Serbian healthcare system during the coronavirus epidemic, Banca Intesa has donated RSD 10 million to the National Health Insurance Fund for the procurement of necessary medical equipment and supplies, providing contribution to the efforts made by the state to bolster the capacity of healthcare institutions during the state of emergency in the country.

“We believe that the current circumstances impose an obligation on all market participants to allocate additional resources to support the community and the state and to contribute to the efforts that the local community is making in the global fight against coronavirus. Now is the time for us all to demonstrate the highest level of responsibility, solidarity and humanity in order to be able to jointly overcome the difficult situation we face“, said Draginja Đurić, president of Banca Intesa Executive Board.

Banca Intesa is making every effort to protect the health of its customers and employees in line with the recommendations of the World Health Organization and to provide necessary support for the citizens and the economy respecting the measures and decisions passed by the Government of the Republic of Serbia and the National Bank of Serbia during the emergency state.
