Magazine Finance Central Europe hands out jubilee awards

Draginja Đurić named Best Banker in South East Europe and Serbia in the past 20 years

Belgrade, June 4, 2020 – Renowned financial magazine Finance Central Europe has named Draginja Đurić, President of Banca Intesa Executive Board, the Best Banker in South East Europe and Serbia in the past 20 years.

The recognition was granted on the occasion of the magazine's 20th anniversary based on Banca Intesa's business results and the personal contribution that Draginja Đurić made to the development of the banking market in Serbia and the entire region. According to the magazine, Draginja Đurić unanimously won the award due to the fact that over the years she positioned Banca Intesa as one of the leading banks in South East Europe and the trend setter in the domestic banking sector, often exceeding market expectations.

"I am proud of the fact that being at the helm of Banca Intesa, but also on positions I held in other institutions over the past two decades, I took part in the transformation and dynamic development of the Serbian banking sector into a strong, stable and regulated system that integrates modern technologies and the highest standards of management while putting its full potential at the disposal of economic growth and better lives of individuals and the community. I see this recognition as the confirmation of my contribution to this process, but also of Banca Intesa's successful operations and its years-long leadership position in the Serbian market", Draginja Đurić said.

Finance Central Europe also declared Draginja Đurić the Best Banker in Serbia 2019, while Banca Intesa was named the Best Bank in Serbia 2019, as well as the Best Bank in Serbia by Assets Strength 2019, the Best Bank in Serbia by Capital Strength 2019 and the Best Bank in Serbia by Pre-Tax Profit 2019.
