

MEDIA RELEASE

Banca Intesa signs agreement to buy Delta Holding business space

All business functions under single roof

Belgrade, November 27, 2015. - Banca Intesa signed today an agreement to buy business space Delta Holding on Milentija Popovica Street in New Belgrade in order to bring all of its business functions under a single roof and create optimum working conditions for its employees.

All business units of Banca Intesa on the territory of Belgrade that have been situated at various locations across the city will be brought together in a move that will help additionally boost business processes and increase operational efficiency, while improving conditions for the further development of the bank's operations.

In this way, international banking group Intesa Sanpaolo, the parent bank of Banca Intesa, once again confirmed its long-term dedication to the Serbian market where it has been present for more than ten years, as well as its strategic commitment to continuously strengthening its operations in the country.

* * *

Banca Intesa ad Beograd, a member of INTESA  SANPAOLO, is the leading bank in the local market, a reliable partner to 1.67 million clients, natural and legal persons. With net assets of around EUR 4.3 billion, total deposits of EUR 2.7 billion and total loans of EUR 2.3 billion, Banca Intesa Beograd is topping the list of the largest banks in Serbia. Owing to the developed business network which consists of 171 branch offices across Serbia, the most developed network of ATMs and POS terminals, as well as a professional team of some 3,000 employees, the bank records growth in all business areas working in the retail, small business, corporate and local government segments.