

PRESS RELEASE

Intesa Sanpaolo Group, which includes Banca Intesa, has continued the announced international consolidation of the Corporate and Investment Banking Division

The Representative Office in Abu Dhabi is Now Operational

Milan, 5 April 2012 – Intesa Sanpaolo, the parent group of Banca Intesa, is proceeding with its plans aimed at the development of the International Department of the Corporate and Investment Banking Division, opening a representative office in Abu Dhabi. The new representative office will report to the HUB Branch of Intesa Sanpaolo Group in Dubai, which oversees the organisational units in the Middle East and North Africa and will coordinate the operations of the Beirut, Casablanca, Cairo, Istanbul and Tunis office.

Intesa Sanpaolo Group's Branch of Dubai, established in April last year, is one of the four HUBs of the International Department of the Corporate and Investment Banking Division and is a new addition to the HUB Branches of London, Hong Kong and New York.

The international development and consolidation of the Corporate and Investment Banking Division proves Intesa Sanpaolo Group's ever growing commitment to supporting Italian businesses which operate in foreign markets.
