XII OTHER PROVISIONS

The Bank shall collect fee for the provided service by the service user or originator, unless otherwise stipulated by the agreement between the client and the Bank or between the clients themselves.

The fee for provision of services which are not stipulated by this Tariff but appear in the Bank's operations and its level shall be determined by the agreement between the clients and the Bank, in accordance with the fee level for similar operations stipulated by this Tariff. Besides the service fees stipulated by this Tariff, the Bank shall also charge and collect the actual expenses arising in the country and abroad.

The following outlays shall be deemed actual expenses:

1. postage for registered mail, express mail and airmail, with receipt and other special mail handling, package postage, as well as transport expenses;
2. telex, telegram and telephone call expenses, except for local telephone calls;
3. telephone, telex and telegraph transfer expenses;
4. special package material expenses;
5. expenses charged by other banks in the country participating in the execution of transaction;
6. commission and expenses charged by foreign banks;
7. dues and similar paid by the Bank for account of the service user;
8. legal representation expenses, court expenses and similar;
9. expenses of outsourcing for work at the request of service users;
10. expenses relating to obtaining information at the request of domestic clients and foreign business partners;
11. expenses of special obligations in foreign transactions;
12. other actual outlays made at the service user's request;
13. expenses of representative's office in providing help to depositors for purchase of domestic goods, durable consumer goods and flats with in-country delivery, as well as in providing other services to the Bank depositors and our other citizens temporarily residing abroad.

Postage for ordinary mail as well as postage for airmail destined for foreign countries shall not be deemed actual expense. Actual expenses shall also be collected when this Tariff stipulates that the relevant service shall be performed without charging a fee.

Expenses may be determined and collected as lump sum for particular types of services that occur more frequently, and in the performance of which several different types of expenses arise, as well as when the expense level is directly dependent on the transaction value. The level of the lump sum expenses, minimum and maximum levels for the mentioned tariff rates shall be determined by the Bank's Executive Board by its decision, depending on the actual trend of expenses in the previous period (the rate of retail price increase and published minimum cost of labor).

The Decision referred to in the previous paragraph shall be an integral part of this Decision.

The fees for all services in FX transactions provided by the Bank to the users in the country shall be charged in RSD, while the fee for services, where the Bank has obligation in foreign currency, shall be shown in EUR. If the FX transactions in the country are performed through several domestic banks, the fees shall be shared according to agreement between the participating banks, in proportion to their respective share in the transaction performed.

For all its services, the Bank shall collect all fees that may arise from any change in current legal regulations or change in current NBS Tariff (the NBS transfer commission) in the manner and in the amount prescribed. The fees for the services the Bank provides to foreign correspondents shall be calculated in foreign currency according to current Tariff for services in transactions with foreign banks and other foreign entities.

In particular cases of interest to the Bank, the Executive Board, or a person authorized by the Book of Authorization, may depart from this Tariff and agree on lower or higher tariff rates in agreement with the clients.

In case of any change in the circumstances material for determining the elements from this Decision, when the Bank's interest requires so, the Executive Board or the person authorized by the Book of Authorization may change this Decision temporarily or amend it, the final decision on which shall be made by the Board of Directors at its first following ordinary meeting.

The clients, affected by the implementation of this decision in the way that the previously agreed terms and conditions for using Bank products are changed, are hereby informed on the changed terms and conditions in the manner prescribed by the General operating terms and conditions.

This Decision shall come into force as of the day of its adoption and apply after the expiry of the two months from the day of its posting in the Bank's business premises.

President of the Board of Directors

Draginja Đurić
